

AIM Healthcare and social benefits for all

AIM SEMINAR

VACCINE HESITANCY, A GLOBAL TREND WHICH THREATENS PUBLIC HEALTH

Monday 11 December 2017, 13:00-16:00

Renaissance Brussels Hotel - Rue du Parnasse 19, 1050 Bruxelles

12:30 Registration and Welcoming Coffee

13:00 Welcome and opening

Mr Pedro Bleck da Silva, AIM Vice-President

13: 20 Keynote speeches

1. WHO Recommendations Vaccine Hesitancy
Mr Robb Butler, Programme Manager, Vaccine-preventable Diseases & Immunization Programme of the Health Emergencies and Communicable Diseases Division, WHO
2. The Challenge of Vaccine hesitancy in the European Union
Mr. Michael Sulzner, Policy Officer, European Commission

14: 00 Round table: working together to counter the wave

Moderated by Erich Koch, SVLFG, Germany

Panelists

- International Association of Mutual Benefit Societies (AIM)
Dr. Michael Callens, Director of the R&D department, Alliances of Christian Sickness funds, Belgium
- Standing Committee of European Doctors (CPME)
Dr Jacques de Haller, CPME President
- European Polio Union (EPU)
Mr. Daniel Peltzer, Polio Survivor
- Vaccines Europe
Mr. Eduardo Pisani, chair of the Vaccines Europe External Affairs WG
- European Public Health Alliance (EPHA)
Ms Peggy Maguire, Director General EIWH and Pat President EPHA

15:45 Conclusions

Menno Aarnout, AIM director

Please register by sending an email to jessica.carreno@aim-mutual.org

