

AIM re-elects Loek Caubo as President for the next 3 Years

The AIM General Assembly has voted its steering committee for the next three years. The so-called Presidium will be led for another 3 years by Loek Caubo, from the Dutch umbrella organisation of health insurers Zorgverzekeraars Nederland.

“It is both a great honour and a great responsibility to be re-elected as President. Together with the other members of the Presidium, I remain eager to work for the future of AIM, for a health and social security system that is inclusive and accessible to all, and for a strong position of our members and AIM at the European in international level.”

Indeed, Mr Caubo will lead the mutualist ship with his fellow captains who are also staying on board:

- Verena Nold, from santésuisse, remains Vice-President for the European Region
- Marion von Wartenberg, from the German vdek, stays in charge of Communication, also as Vice-President
- Alejandro Russo carries on as Vice-President for the Latin-American Region
- and Alain Coheur, from Solidararis, remains Treasurer.

They will be joined by two new members, who are joining the crew:

- Abdelaziz Alaoui, from the Moroccan CMIM, as Vice-President for the African Region
- Yannick Lucas, from the French FNMF, as Vice-President in charge of International Collaboration

The Presidium bids farewell to Matthias Savignac (FNMF, France), Fouad Bajilali (MFA, Morocco), and Pedro Bleck da Silva (Montepio, Portugal), who had been part of the Presidium respectively for the last 9, 3 and 6 years.
